What is the New Street and Greyfriars Community Agreement?

It is an agreement between Stafford and Rural Homes (SARH) and all residents of New Street and Greyfriars.

It does not replace a Tenancy Agreement, but it explains how customers are committed to conducting themselves in their daily lives, showing care and consideration for their neighbours. It also details the services that customers can expect from SARH.

What is the aim of the Community Agreement?

‘To allow all residents the right to a quiet life and good neighbours’

New Street and Greyfriars is a good place to live, but the actions of the minority can often spoil life for everyone. Together we will make a stand against anyone who does not respect his or her neighbours, their environment, their homes or the law. This community will succeed if we all work together.

Who is involved?

- You – as a customer of SARH. This includes SARH tenants, leaseholders and private tenants.
- SARH and any contractors employed by SARH to provide services.

What is expected of residents (tenants, leaseholders and other members of their households)?

With regard to each other

Residents should respect other people, whatever their age, gender, sexual orientation, religious belief, ethnicity and disability. Everyone must tolerate and respect different lifestyles. Think how your lifestyle may affect others. Everyone has an equal right to live peacefully.

The Community wants residents to;

- Help SARH make sure New Street and Greyfriars is a good place to live
- Take responsibility for their own behaviour and that of their children, friends and visitors.

- Not leave unwanted furniture in the drying areas or fly tipped.
- Not drop litter or dump rubbish in the communal areas
- Park in a responsible manner and not restrict access required by other vehicles
- Make sure that stairwells and walkways are kept clear
- Ensure that music is not played too loud
- Refrain from shouting and knocking doors and windows to gain access at anti-social hours
- Refrain from intimidating behaviour
- Ensure that people do not loiter in intimidating groups
- Ensure that there is no drug taking
- Ensure that residents act responsibly, by keeping their dogs on leads and not allowing them to foul in the communal grounds.

With regard to SARH

Repairs

The Customer and Leaseholder Handbooks explain in detail your responsibilities.

- Repairs should be reported as soon as possible to ensure that the problem does not get any worse.
- Repairs to SARH properties and problems with communal areas should be reported to the Customer Services Centre on free phone 0800 111 4554 who will ensure they are dealt with
- Don't assume that someone else has reported a fault in a communal area. The Customer Services Centre will confirm to you if it has already been reported.

Anti-Social Behaviour

The Customer Handbook and Leaseholder Handbooks provide more information

Anti-Social Behaviour may be defined as 'any conduct which is capable of causing distress, nuisance or annoyance to any person'.

Committing Anti-Social Behaviour is a breach of the Tenancy Agreement and can result in eviction. SARH takes it very seriously and asks its residents to observe some basic guidelines as detailed below.

- Treat neighbours and their visitors, with respect and consideration.
- Be aware that noise travels easily in a block of flats so:
  - keep music, TVs etc. to an acceptable level (not loud enough to be heard clearly outside your own flat. If playing music, keep the windows closed);
  - remember that shouting and loud arguments may be heard by others; and
  - do not hold lengthy or loud conversations outside someone else's flat.

- Some common forms of anti-social behaviour that will not be tolerated are :-
  - foul and abusive language;
  - urinating, spitting, vomiting or otherwise defiling communal areas;
  - smoking and/or the consumption of alcohol in the communal areas;
  - taking of non-prescription drugs;
  - allowing unauthorised access to a stranger;
  - graffiti;
  - damage to any property owned by SARH or residents;
  - dumping rubbish or dropping litter in communal areas and bin stores (including the grounds surrounding New Street and Greyfriars
  - not disposing of waste properly – bins should be used;
  - any criminal activities
  - persistently noisy dogs

Please report any incidents of anti-social behaviour as soon as possible to SARH Customer Service Centre on freephone 0800 111 4554 and keep a record. Details will be passed to the Neighbourhood Services Team for follow up action. SARH will treat all reports in strict confidence.

How will this Agreement be monitored and reviewed?

- A New Street and Greyfriars Action Team (NSAGAT) made up of New Street and Greyfriars residents and SARH staff will meet monthly to monitor performance against agreed standards.
- The NSAGAT will use the 'New Street and Greyfriars Community Agreement Monitoring Document' which includes performance information regarding how anti-social behaviour, tenancy breaches and complaints should be dealt with. Copies of this Monitoring Document are available upon request.
- Customers can raise issues through this Group, although discussions about individual residents or properties should not be raised. Individual requests for a SARH service should be directed to SARH in the normal manner.
- The Agreement will be monitored monthly and reviewed annually. An annual report will be sent to all residents, leaseholders and leaseholders not resident in the block.
- SARH will carry out an annual satisfaction survey of customers in New Street and Greyfriars.

How will customers be kept informed?

- Important updates will be included in a quarterly newsletter (New Street and Greyfriars Bulletin) to be delivered to all residents of New Street and Greyfriars, including leaseholders, and leaseholders not resident in the flats.
- Consultation events, when required, will be arranged, publicised and held at the Stafford and Rural Homes shop at Greyfriars or another convenient location.

Equality and Diversity Statement

SARH will promote good relationships between individuals and different groups within the community taking positive steps to increase representation in its decision making process. This will include increased representation from young people, people who are in daytime employment, people with a disability or a limiting long term illness, people from black and minority ethnic communities and others who are less well represented.

If you would like to find out more information regarding SARH's commitment to Equality and Diversity, then please contact the Policy and Performance Manager on 0800 111 4554 or e-mail enquiries@sarh.co.uk
